

Alan Chaffin Promoted to Vice President of Portfolio Management, Underwriting at WorkLife HR®

TROY, MI – March 2, 2011 – WorkLife HR® has announced the promotion of Alan Chaffin to vice president of portfolio management, underwriting for the professional employer organization (PEO) and business solutions provider. Formerly a senior analyst, Chaffin’s role has been expanded to include new responsibilities.

Chaffin, who joined WorkLife HR in 2007, is responsible for the pricing and delivery of all proposals and fulfilling the initial underwriting requirements for the Company’s Workers’ Compensation program; analyzing financial performance on a weekly basis; providing real-time results for employee headcount and production data; and is actively involved in workers’ compensation policy audits. In his new role, Chaffin will also act as the liaison between the Sales and Accounting departments to make sure all revenue and allocated costs are captured, and will be involved in the financial due diligence for potential acquisition candidates.

Chaffin has over thirty years of experience as a financial analyst and has spent the past ten years in the PEO industry as a financial analyst/underwriter. He holds a bachelor’s degree in accounting from Georgia State University.
