

Amy King Appointed Director of Accounting for WorkLife HR®

TROY, MI – August 10, 2011 – WorkLife HR®, a professional employer organization that provides financial and administrative solutions to the workplace including human resource management, payroll administration, employment law compliance and benefits services, today announced that Amy King has been promoted to director of accounting for the company's WorkLife NetPay and WorkLife Insurance Agency divisions from accounting manager. The move will enhance organizational effectiveness within the department.

King will report directly to Carl Russo, vice president of finance, and her responsibilities will focus on the overall financial operations for the two divisions. She will work closely with the senior vice president of each division as she processes monthly reporting and transactions related to their divisions.

Since joining the company as accounting manager in 2005, King has progressively taken on additional responsibilities within the accounting department.
