

Robin Karp Promoted to Vice President of Client HR at WorkLife HR®

TROY, MI – November 29, 2011 – WorkLife HR®, a professional employer organization that provides financial and administrative solutions to the workplace including human resource management, payroll administration, employment law compliance and benefits services, today announced that Robin Karp has been promoted from national director of client HR to vice president of client HR.

In this role, Karp, who is based in the company's Alpharetta, Georgia office, will oversee the Client Human Resources Department and will continue to handle client consultation and training.

Karp first joined WorkLife HR in 2007 as human resource manager. In 2009, she was promoted to national director of client human resources. During that time, Karp expanded client HR services across the country and acted as a representative for the company with the National Association of Professional Employer Organizations (NAPEO).

Karp holds a bachelor of arts degree from Emory University and a juris doctor degree from the University of Alabama School of Law.

About WorkLife HR

WorkLife HR®, a national firm headquartered in Troy, Michigan, provides financial and administrative solutions to the workplace including human resource management, payroll administration, employment law compliance and benefits services allowing them to serve their client-base as a “one source” business services and asset management provider. For more information, please visit www.WorkLifeHR.com.

###

Contact:
Katy Richardson
Director of Marketing
WorkLife HR
krichardson@worklifehr.com
800.466.2473 x2436