WorkLife HR® Brightens the Holiday Season for Children and Their Families

TROY, MI – December 16, 2010 – For the ninth consecutive year, employees at WorkLife HR® helped raise over $4,000 for their Holiday Families Fund. The money raised enabled the company to purchase gifts for over 25 children and adults as well as donate gifts to Toys for Tots and other organizations. Throughout the year, employees help raise money by participating in “Jean Days,” potluck lunches, and various other events. WorkLife HR, a professional employer organization, provides financial and administrative solutions to the workplace including human resource management, payroll administration, employment law compliance and benefits services.

Employees volunteered their time to shop, wrap and deliver gifts. The gifts included items that each child or adult had written on a “Wish List,” such as toys and clothing. Families also received sheets, bath towels, wash cloths, cleaning supplies and other everyday essentials.

“Raising money throughout the year allows our employees to reflect on the fact that no matter how challenging times may be for us, we are all very fortunate. In times like this, it is even more important that we share with people in need,” said Steve Groulx, CEO. “I’m proud to see the whole WorkLife HR family pitch in throughout the year to help bring hope and joy to children and families this holiday season.”
