

WorkLife HR® Promotes Scott Parr to Vice President of Information Technology

TROY, MI – December 15, 2010 – WorkLife HR®, a professional employer organization that provides financial and administrative solutions to the workplace including human resource management, payroll administration, employment law compliance and benefits services, today announced the promotion of Scott Parr to vice president of information technology (IT). Parr most recently served as director of information technology.

In his new role, Parr will continue to oversee all aspects of the company's internal and external IT operations, including planning, developing, analyzing, designing, implementing and maintaining all facets of IT services and operations as needed by the company.

"It's a pleasure to be part of the hardworking team here at WorkLife HR," commented Parr, "I look forward to helping the company continue its growth and building a world-class technology organization."

"Scott plays a critical role and has been instrumental to our success in managing and expanding our IT operations infrastructure, systems and security that have allowed us to continue our growth," said Steve Groulx, CEO. "He is very deserving of this promotion."

Parr joined WorkLife HR in 2007 and has over 12 years of experience in IT operations. He holds 38 diverse certifications from Microsoft, including Microsoft Certified Trainer, Microsoft Certified IT Professional, Microsoft Certified Technology Specialist, Microsoft Certified Systems Engineer, and Microsoft Certified Systems Administrator. Parr also received the Microsoft Early Achiever award, a globally recognized accomplishment.

Parr received his MBA from Davenport University. He also served as a reconnaissance scout in the U.S. Army for five years.
